

COMPROMISE OUT OF THE QUESTION

Two Conventions and Two Democratic Tickets in Idaho a Sure Thing.

Boise, Ida., Aug. 3.—There will be no compromise of the contending factions at the Democratic state convention at Wallace. There will be two conventions and two state tickets.

That is the word that reached Boise yesterday from the scene of the contest. While the forecast may be disturbed by tomorrow's events, it can be stated that the advance information here given comes from an inside source.

The Dubois faction claims to have over 120 of the 288 votes of the convention—a clear majority—to enforce the action of the state committee, which Mr. Dubois controls, in unseating the anti-Mormon platform. The committee will issue admission tickets bearing the names of those it decides are entitled to seats. None other will be allowed on the floor of the convention.

Some predict a free fight as the result of this action, but it is more than likely the anti-Mormons will hold a convention of their own. With the delegates unseated by the Dubois faction, they, too, will have a majority of the total membership of the convention.

The anti-Dubois men will likely nominate for governor, Judge C. O. Stockslager of Halley, or John C. Rice of Caldwell. They will strongly endorse the Denver platform, and their ratification of Bryan's nomination will be very emphatic.

The Dubois crowd will nominate either Mr. Dubois or Dr. Whitwell of Salmon City for governor. They, too, will endorse the Denver platform and pledge support to Bryan, but their platform will contain the anti-Mormon plank that is the bone of contention.

If two tickets should be named the contending factions will go into the courts to secure recognition. Under the state law no name can appear more than once on the ticket. The national Democratic organization will, therefore, be interested in the contest to the extent, at least, of seeing to it that only one ticket is filed in order not to jeopardize the Bryan electors.

Situation at Wallace.

Wallace, Ida., Aug. 3.—A large delegation is here to attend the Democratic state nomination convention tomorrow afternoon. The chief bone of contention is a reaffirmation of an anti-Mormon plank demanded by former Senator Dubois.

The anti-Dubois delegates held a caucus tonight, at which it was claimed 188 regularly elected delegates were present out of a total of 288; conceding to Dubois 130. The caucus appointed a steering committee of twelve to control the movements of the anti-Dubois delegates and a committee of five attorneys to advise as to procedure for the purpose of laying the basis for a contest in the courts in case two tickets are nominated, which seems probable.

Central Committee Meets.

The state central committee met tonight in executive session received notice of contest against anti-Dubois delegates in Ada, Bear Lake, Bingham, Oneida and Fremont counties, involving fifty-three seats. Friends of the anti-Dubois contingent on the committee offered a protest against the committee considering any contests, but the committee refused to receive the protest, or to permit the secretary to make any mention of it. They also refused to permit the secretary to give notice of the contest. The anti-Dubois people claim that Ada county, having participated in the alleged "rump" convention at Ogden in May, has thereby read itself out of the party. The other counties are contested on the ground that the delegates are Mormons and were elected by Mormons.

Caucus of the Antis Today.

The anti-Dubois delegates will caucus tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock to receive reports from their steering and legal committees and the state committee will meet at 10 o'clock to hear evidence on the contests, although the anti-Dubois caucus instructed its friends to submit no evidence, but to rest their case on a denial of the authority of the state committee, to consider alleged contests as being contrary to the primary law of the state and contrary to Democratic precedent in Idaho.

RECORD FOR WARSHIP.

Indomitable Made Fast Time From Quebec to Cowes.

Cowes, Aug. 3.—The British cruiser Indomitable, with the Prince of Wales on board, arrived here at 9:30 o'clock this evening from Quebec.

The Indomitable's speed throughout the whole voyage averaged 21½ knots, exceeding the best previous warship record of 19 knots, made by the battleship Drake, which carried Prince Louis of Battenberg to and from America in 1905.

Ottawa, Ontario, Aug. 3.—The government received tonight the following telegram from the Prince of Wales:

"I arrived safely after a most successful cruise. I averaged over 22 knots from land to land. (Signed) GEORGE."

MODISH MILLINERY FOR MATRONLY LADIES

Advanced styles for lady horses this season are quite a departure from the fashions that prevailed last year. One noteworthy feature is the use of the effect of the Korean shade scheme—everything is new.

At Tattersall's in New York the models for millinery for the equine are laid. There is nothing, therefore, to prevent Tom McCoy's livery bazaar from obtaining, first hand, the latest modes in equine finery direct from those who conceive it. Tom McCoy and Hoodoo Bill have secured the first of the ultra-fashionable millinery for horses. It is not unlikely that a grand opening will be given in the near future, at which the latest fashions in lady equine headgear will be on exhibition.

Through the courtesy of Hoodoo Bill, The Herald this day presents a series of the styles that are considered the more progressive. Hoodoo Bill says the lady horses sometimes do not take kindly to the new fashions, but seek always to eat the luxuriant grass and stuff that grows in the meadows. However, like a woman, the lady horse will do "most anything" to be in the fashion, and for that reason it is safe to assume that it will not be long ere lady horses of Salt Lake will universally adopt and be satisfied and tremendously gratified with the improvement in their appearance. A lady horse it may be said, must be given credit for some of the sense that is usually attributed to the horse tribe, albeit it may be exceedingly annoying to be in the fashion.

It is whispered that the lady horses of Salt Lake will appear as soon as the hot weather abates in directorate gowns. The gentlemen horses, it is also quietly rumored, will not be far behind the lady horses, but will appear in dilette breeches, wide at the thigh, and close-fitting at the bottom.

The first illustration given in this column this morning shows the Lou Dillon. This hat is after the style of a poke, but has a cudiavating band around the outer crown. It is fastened on with ribbons instead of pyrographic leather work. It has the advantage of rendering an old mare young and a young mare

Man Who Did Stabbing at Devil's Slide Under Arrest in Ogden.

William Thomas, colored, who stabbed a man named Lindsay twelve times in the breast and lungs at Devil's Slide last Saturday night, was captured by the police in an abandoned adobe hut at the corner of Twenty-seventh street and Wall avenue about 9 o'clock yesterday morning. As it is reported that Lindsay cannot recover Thomas will be taken back to Ogden to stand trial for murder.

After coming to Ogden early Sunday morning Thomas sought refuge from the police in the place where he was captured yesterday. He remained in hiding until yesterday, when someone saw and recognized him and reported his whereabouts to the police. Detective Pender and Officers Critchlow and Leaver surrounded the house with drawn weapons. Thomas submitted quietly to arrest. He was taken to police headquarters, where he made a full confession to the officers. Thomas stated that the man whom he stabbed had told him they had no use for niggers in that part of the country, and he feared that he would be lynched if he remained after the robbery. He insisted that a plea of self-defense would save him from the death penalty, even though Lindsay did succumb to his injuries. After his fight Sunday night Thomas made his way from the camp at Devil's Slide and remained in hiding until he had an opportunity to board a freight train bound for Ogden.

CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

Little Business Done and It of Routine Nature.

The city council held a short session last night and transacted a little business, mostly of a routine nature. The finance committee recommended that the additional stockholder asked for by the recorder be paid a salary of $20 a month, as suggested in the recorder's report. Some of the councilmen were opposed to increasing the recorder's office force, but finally the recommendation was adopted.

The buildings and grounds committee was instructed to secure a large portrait of Lorin Farr, who was the first mayor of Ogden, to be hung in the council chamber, along with the portraits of the other mayors which adorn the walls of the council chamber at the present time.

The question of securing a city haymarket to take the place of Tabernacle square, which has been used since City Hall square was abolished as a market place, was brought up and discussed, and referred to a committee for investigation and report.

INCREASES TAX LEVY.

County Board Tries to Reduce it, but Seems to Have Failed.

By an action taken last week by the board of county commissioners the amount asked by the board of education for the maintenance of city schools was reduced from $74,000 to $68,221. Since that time it has been discovered that the board acted without authority in making the cut.

The city board of education asked for a levy of 7.3 mills for school purposes. This was cut to 7 mills by the commissioners. Under the previous arrangements the total rate of taxation in Ogden was 4.4 mills, but the three-tenths additional asked for would have made it 4.7 mills. The board of education went the school board one better at its meeting yesterday afternoon and increased the levy for all tax purposes from 5 mills to 5.5 mills. The board's purpose in doing this has not as yet been made public.

AUTO IN THE RIVER.

Denny Smyth's Machine Dives, but Five Occupants Escape.

Denny Smyth's big red automobile was thrown into the river in Ogden canyon yesterday afternoon and badly damaged. There were five persons in the car at the time of the accident, but all escaped injury. The accident is said to have been caused by the steering gear breaking.

Ogden Heights Fruit Company.

Articles of Incorporation of the Ogden Heights Fruit company were filed with the county clerk yesterday. It has a capital stock of $50,000, divided into 500 shares, to be a general fruit growing and farming business. The officers are: President, S. W. Wherry; Secretary-treasurer, D. H. Adams. These with E. J. Wherry, C. A. Wherry and A. P. Bigelow, compose the board of directors.

Burglar in the House.

Returning from the circus parade yesterday Mrs. Samuel G. Dye, 62 Twenty-third street, found a burglar in the house. He left on her arrival. A trunk had been broken open and its contents thrown about the room. As far as can be learned the intruder secured nothing.

Will Have Moving Pictures.

In connection with the Bamberger road from Ogden to Lagoon and the Ogden Press club excursion today, it is expected old. It is serviceable, as well as ornamental. Sometimes it is tied with a sash or knot, but a simple bumblon bow will do as well.

In the second illustration is seen the mejikano effect. It is a hat that any lady horse can make at home between coats and hay, if she is not too hungry. The basic principle of this hat, which is called the Goldsmith Maid, is a symmetrical cadranee, all bound round with woolsen string and relieved with an elaborate copper kagigus, which may be had at any jeweler's for $10. A stiletto as a fastener adds materially to the effect, but lady horses should exercise the utmost care not to jab the poniard into their

Thirdly, there is shown the Merry Widow effect in the Maud S. The name of this hat is really a misnomer for the reason that Mrs. Maud became a matron only a few weeks ago. The Maud S. hat for its chief characteristic a large, broad, extended plain, whereon easily horses might trot and pace and gallop. It is in the form of the race course, with a mark in the middle, where the occular play and the vegetation grows in luxuriant form. It is on this hat that Maud S. made her famous record in a light wheel sulky, which held for years. In order to relieve the monotony of the scheme, which, as must be confessed, becomes rather tiresome, the addition of an elaborate hummingbird's plume is fancied by the expert milliner, who confesses it after a court dinner at 4 o'clock in the morning in the Tsarko-Selo palace, in how organizations were effected for the Russian arms over the Japanese foes: "Krabinskis twald, Czarina marokk drism-jrak, istru."

At the afternoon session yesterday, Isaac Grace sounded the keynote of the conference when he spoke of the necessity of parental organizations for the study of child-rearing, and pointed out how organizations were effected for the good of all enterprises, and yet the proper training of children was little discussed by the different parents.

The mutual improvement conference was held at Nephi in the evening. Apostle Heber J. Grant held his hearers in rapt attention by his stirring address, and took for his text several passages from Senator Beveridge's book, "The Young Men and the World."

Professor William Jardine of the United States department of agriculture, Dr. Briggs of the same department, Professor L. A. Merrill and D. Bell of the Agricultural college, have spent the past few days here inspecting the arid farms of the county. Harvesting and threshing will begin earnestly this week, and between 120,000 and 200,000 bushels will be garnered in from the dry farms here this year.

JUAB STAKE CONFERENCE

Patriarch Smith and Apostle Grant Were the Principal Speakers.

Nephi, Aug. 3.—The regular quarterly conference of Juab stake was held at Mona Saturday and Sunday, with some very interesting sessions. The principal speakers were Patriarch John Smith and Apostle Heber J. Grant were down from Salt Lake. Excellent music was furnished by the Mona choir and by Miss Neola Ellerton.

R. R. TELEGRAPHER

Increases Ability on Right Food.

Anything that will help the R. R. Telegrapher operator to keep a clear head and steady nerves is of interest to operators particularly and to the public generally.

As the waste of brain and nerve cells in active work of this kind is great, it is important that the right kind of food be regularly used to repair the waste.

"I have used Grape-Nuts," writes a R. R. & P. operator, "for the past six or eight years, daily, buying it by the dozen pcks."

"A friend of mine, a doctor, who had been treating me for stomach trouble and nervous exhaustion, recommended me to leave off so much meat and use fruit and vegetables, with Grape-Nuts as the cereal part of each meal."

"I did so with fine results and have continued Grape-Nuts from that time to the present. I find in my work as R. R. Telegrapher that I can do more work and far easier than I ever could on the old diet."

"To any man who is working his brain and who needs a cool, level head and quick action, I recommend Grape-Nuts, from long experience." "There's a Reason."

A new cereal, koflett, is being manufactured in Utah, and for that a gold medal was ordered.

The secretary was instructed to correspond with cattle, horse and sheep associations, with a view to securing for service during the fair week the best judges in these departments.

CHARGE BOY WITH THEFT.

Youthful Nomad Alleged to Have Broken Into Murray House.

Earl Streeby, aged 17, was arrested by Patrolman Harry Curran yesterday afternoon, and is in the county jail charged with vagrancy. It is believed that he broke into a rooming house at Murray yesterday and stole a revolver and fountain pen. The police are also trying to connect him with a similar case on Fourteenth South street. He was taken to the county jail as the alleged offense occurred outside the city limits.

The officers say young Streeby came to this city in company with three other hoboes. They charge him with having broken into the Murray house. He maintains his innocence and declares that while he has been on a freight train here, he did not break any other law.
